

ALL FOR NOTHING

All for Nothing was formed in late 2002, their first CD "Start At Zero" (MCD) was released in July 2004. After a line-up change the band decided to record a 4 song demo to let fans dive into the new female fronted hardcore sound.

In May 2007 All for Nothing released their first full length album "Can't Kill what's Inside" through Swell creek Records (GER) which received a great response from fans and media.

The band played close to 300 shows all over Europe and did 2 European Tours to support their album.

All for Nothing had the pleasure to share stages with: Bane, Comeback Kid, This is Hell, The Warriors, Parkway Drive, Cancer Bats, Earthquake, Stretch Armstrong, Verse, 25 Ta Life, Go It Alone, Angel Crew, Bulldoze, Black Friday '29, Settle The Score, No Turning Back, Miles Away, Cruel Hand, Down To Nothing, Slapshot, Wisdom In Chains, Sworn Enemy, Misconduct, To Kill, Shai Hulud, Last Mile, Static Thought, Terror, Sick of it All, Born from Pain, H2O, War of Ages, Heaven shall Burn and many more.

In the fall of 2008, exactly 1,5 years after they released "Can't Kill What's Inside", the new record entitled "Solitary" saw the light of the world and is available as 7" vinyl through Demons Run Amok Entertainment and digipack MCD through WTF Records.

To support their latest and matured release so far, the band went on the road again together with Boston's Slapshot and Bridge 9's Energy, for a 2,5 weeks European Tour in November and December 2008.
