

MORTALITY RATE

Mortality Rate are a five-piece hardcore band from Calgary, Alberta that have been around since 2014. Sonically, they're obviously very aggressive and abrasive, and feature some assaultive vocals. To give a broad umbrella of references to their sound, you might dig them if you like bands like Year Of The Knife, Jesus Piece and Punch.

This is solid Canadian hardcore, you can't go wrong. Enjoy.
